Written by Christine D. Johnson
Monday, 04 February 2013 09:46 AM EST

Companies and authors are invited to enter their top releases in the 2013 Christian Retailing’s Best awards, honoring the best products in the Christian retail market. Feb. 15 is the deadline to enter this year’s awards program, now in its 13th season.

There are 62 categories of books, Bibles, gifts, music, DVDs and more, along with a Backlist category. Click here to nominate . Those nominating will be invoiced for the entry fee of $60 per nomination.

New categories have been added this year, including Games/Toys and Seasonal/Holiday in the Gifts super category and Fiction: Amish and Fiction: Biblical in Books. Click here to see a complete listing of the 2013 categories.

Following the nomination period, Christian retailers and others in the Christian products industry—including authors, editors, literary agents and distributors—will be invited to vote. Voting details will appear in the March print issue of Christian Retailing ( Click here to sign up for the digital issue .) and in the Christian Retailing Update e-newsletter ( Click here to sign up for Update .).

Winners of the Christian Retailing’s Best awards—formerly known as the Retailers Choice Awards—will be announced at the International Christian Retail Show in St. Louis in June.

For more information, e-mail Editor Christine Johnson at crbest@charismamedia.com .