

Christian Retailing covers the latest industry news and information in each of its print and digital issues. The magazine includes respected editorial content on the critical issues affecting the Christian retail industry, supplemented by advertising that specifically targets Christian retail store owners and buyers.

Circulation

Christian Retailing distributes almost 7,000 copies per issue, with 6,500 copies sent directly to retail locations that sell Christian products. Stores include traditional Christian retailers, church-based stores and general market retailers. Additional copies of the magazine are distributed at the International Christian Retail Show.

Contact us

For more information on advertising with Christian Retailing, e-mail Cliff Morales at Cliff.Morales@charismamedia.com