

Matt Redman wins two GRAMMYs

Written by Eric Tiansay
Monday, 11 February 2013 10:59 AM EST

Matt Redman won two GRAMMYs last night during the 55th Annual GRAMMY Awards in Los Angeles.

Redman was recognized in the Best Contemporary Christian Music Song and Best Gospel/Contemporary Christian Music Performance categories for "10,000 Reasons (Bless The Lord)" from his album 10,000 Reasons (sixstepsrecords/EMI CMG Distribution).

Israel Houghton and Micah Massey were also recognized as tied for the win with Redman in the Best Contemporary Christian Music Song category for "Your Presence Is Heaven" from Jesus at the Center (Integrity Music/RGM—New Breed Music/Provident Distribution).

TobyMac's Eye On It (ForeFront Records/EMI CMG) won the Best Contemporary Christian Album category, while hip-hop artist Lecrae nabbed a GRAMMY for Gravitate (Reach Records/Infinity Music Distribution) in the Best Gospel Album category.

Sister duo Mary Mary won the Best Gospel Song category for "Go Get It," the title track of Go Get It (Columbia Records/Provident Distribution).

Click here for a complete list of GRAMMY Award winners.